Highlights

- We believe excess returns can be generated by investing in a portfolio of market leading companies with unique business models, positively inflecting growth rates, and long duration competitive advantages
- Fundamental research focused on duration and magnitude of growth lays the foundation for identification of high earnings growth companies, in our view
- We believe employing a high conviction and concentrated approach that is agnostic to both sector and region is a meaningful way to generate alpha
- Broad fundamental research leverages Jennison's 50-year history of growth stock investing to target a very select group of companies with the following attributes:
 - Innovative and disruptive businesses driving structural shifts in their industries
 - Defensible business models with significant competitive barriers to entry
 - Secular demand trends driven by superior product offerings

There is no assurance that any securities discussed herein will remain in an account's portfolio or that securities sold have not been repurchased. It should not be assumed that any of the securities transactions or holdings discussed were or will prove to be profitable. The securities discussed may represent only a small percentage of an account's portfolio holdings. Please note that certain securities of foreign issuers may be held as ADRs. Additionally, different classes of securities from the same issuer may be combined for illustrative purposes.

Performance results fluctuate, and there can be no assurances that objectives will be achieved. Performance results are calculated in US dollars and reflect reinvestment of dividends and other earnings. Gross of fee performance is presented before custodial and Jennison's actual advisory fees but after transaction costs. Net of fee performance reflects the deduction of a model fee and is net of transaction costs. Due to the inclusion of performance based fee accounts, model net of fee performance presented herein may be higher or lower than the actual net of fee performance of the composite. Model net of fee performance is based on the highest tier of the standard asset-based fee schedule. Actual net of fee returns are available upon request and are calculated using estimated performance fee accruals, where applicable, which are subject to change based on the account's performance as of each period end until the actual fees are invoiced. Returns are gross of reclaimable withholding taxes, if any, and net of non-reclaimable withholding taxes. Actual advisory fees charged and actual account minimum size may vary by account due to various conditions described in Jennison Associates LLC's Form ADV.

Average Weight is the dollar value (price times the shares held) of the security or group, divided by the total dollar value of the entire portfolio displayed as a percentage. It is calculated as the simple arithmetic average of daily values. Total Return is the price change of a security or group including dividends accrued over the report period or the "in-portfolio return" which includes only the time period that each security was in the portfolio. Total Effect is the sum of Allocation Effect and Stock Selection. The total effect represents the opportunity cost of what was done in a group relative to the overall portfolio. It is not just the difference between percent contribution in the portfolio and benchmark. At the overall portfolio level, the two numbers are equal. At the group level, they can be different.
